

Make Every Drop of Water Count: Efficient Irrigation, Smart Controllers and Climate Appropriate Shade Trees

Wednesday, June 28, 2017, 7:30 am – 3:00 pm

AGENDA

- 7:30am Sign In and Breakfast
- 8:00 am Welcome Laura Gromis, Executive Director, USGBC Central California
- 8:10 am Department of Water Resources Update – What’s New, What’s Up –
Julie Saare-Edmonds, DWR
- 8:30 am Fine-Tuning Your Irrigation for Mitigating Water and Pesticide Runoff - Jim Borneman,
Ewing Irrigation
Indoor presentation and Outdoor Hands-On Session
- 9:30 am Break
- 9:45 am Fine-Tuning (continued)
- 11:00 am Key Learnings from UC Mature Landscape Study - Dave Fujino, UC Davis
- 11:45 noon Lunch
- 12:30 pm Smart Irrigation Controllers – How smart are they? - Loren Oki, UC Davis
- 1:15 pm Landscape Research Update - Maggie Reiter, UCCE Fresno, Madera, Tulare, Kings
County
- 1:30 pm Break
- 1:45 pm Trees for Fresno and Tree City Designation - Jon Bushoven, Fresno State; Brad
Greenbury, USGBC Central California
- 2:15 pm Best Management Strategies for Healthy Trees - Maggie Reiter, UCCE Fresno County
- 3:00 pm End

www.usgbccc.org

