

Make Every Drop of Water Count: Efficient Irrigation, Smart Controllers and Climate Appropriate Shade Trees

Learn how improve water management and system efficiency and reduce water use and water and pesticide run off. Learn how to establish and maintain climate appropriate shade trees. This workshop features indoor presentations and outdoor demonstrations.

- Topics
1. Understand weather based and moisture based “Smart” controllers
 2. Learn how to design and implement a high efficiency In-line drip irrigation system
 3. Calculate In-line drip irrigation run-times for specific soil types
 4. Learn “key” success criteria for tree selection, establishment, and maintenance
 5. Understand “key” learnings from statewide water use landscape study

Date & Time Wednesday, June 28th, 2017

7:30am-3pm

Location Clovis Community College Center
10309 N. Willow Ave
Academic Center 1, Room 150
Fresno, CA 93730

Cost $30. Price includes continental breakfast, lunch and refreshments. Includes a participation certificate that can be used for obtaining NALP and IA CEU's.

Sign Up <http://www.usgbccc.org/event-2541749>

USGBC
CENTRAL
CALIFORNIA

SPONSORS

UCDAVIS

ccub

 Clovis
Community
College

 University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources

 EWING