

Getting it Right!

Drip Irrigation, Plant Selection and Lowering Water Use

A Workshop for Landscape Professionals

Tues., Oct. 4, 8:30 AM to Noon

McMillan Center and Fair Oaks Horticulture Center (in Fair Oaks Park)
8020 Temple Park Rd, Fair Oaks, CA 95628

Free* - Registration required and limited to 75 people.

Register Online: <http://ccuh.ucdavis.edu/events/getting.it.right>

Agenda

INDOOR (McMillan Center):

- 8:00 Registration and snacks & refreshments
- 8:30 Introduction
- 8:35 Results of statewide research on the new ET adjustment factor
Janet Hartin – UCCE San Bernardino, Los Angeles, & Riverside Counties
- 9:15 Low Water Use Plants: WUCOLS IV plant database
Dave Fujino – CA Center for Urban Horticulture, UC Davis
- 9:55 Measuring distribution uniformity and calculating run time
Loren Oki – Plant Science Dept., UC Davis
- 10:35 Transition to Fair Oaks Horticultural Center (FOHC)

OUTDOOR (FOHC):

- 11:00 Sprinkler irrigation retrofit to line-source drip irrigation
Chuck Ingels – UCCE Sacramento County
- 11:25 Drip system hydraulics: Use appropriate valve and pipe size to ensure adequate pressure!
Lori Palmquist – WaterWonk, San Francisco Bay Area
- 12:00 Adjourn

Sponsored By:

